WAC 192-140-005 Filing weekly claims for benefits. (1) How do I file my weekly claim for benefits? You may file your claim by calling the department's unemployment information and weekly claims line, using the department's internet web site, or filing a paper claim. (The department can approve other methods of filing a weekly claim in individual circumstances.)

(2) When do I file my claim? You must file a claim for every week for which you want to be paid or have counted as your waiting week. Every week begins at 12:01 a.m. on Sunday and ends at midnight on Saturday. You must file your claim (must be filed) after the end of the week(s) you are claiming.

(a) File your telephone or internet claim after 12:01 a.m. Sunday, but before 5:00 p.m. on Friday, following the week you are claiming. (In case of a legal holiday, file your claim before 5:00 p.m. on the last working day of the week.)

(b) If you file by paper, file your claim anytime Sunday through Saturday following the week you are claiming. If you file by mail, your claim is considered filed on the postmarked date. If you file by fax, your claim is considered filed on the date of receipt.

(3) How often do I file my claim? File your claim weekly. The department may approve other filing schedules in cases of emergency or in unusual circumstances.

(4) What happens if I miss a week? If you do not claim a week, you must reopen your claim. See WAC 192-110-050.

(a) If you have not yet received your first payment, you may claim benefits for one week prior to the week in which you contact the telecenter to reopen your claim.

(b) If you have received your first payment and not more than four consecutive weeks have elapsed since you last filed a claim, you may claim benefits for any of the four weeks prior to the week in which you contacted the telecenter to reopen your claim.

(c) Except as described in (a) and (b) of this subsection, we will consider unclaimed weeks late. The department will not pay you for these weeks unless you show good cause for not contacting the telecenter earlier to reopen your claim.

(5) What information do I have to report? Your claim must include:

(a) The Saturday date of the week you are claiming;
(b) Answers to the questions;
(c) The telecenter cannot process a claim filed by telephone (cannot be processed) or internet unless all questions are answered;

(ii) The department will process a claim filed in writing if at least one question is answered and other information required by this subsection (5) is provided, but your eligibility for benefits will be in question and you will be asked to provide complete information, which could result in a denial of benefits;

(g) Any earnings and the number of hours you worked during the week claimed.

(6) What happens if I don't provide this information? The department cannot process a telephone or internet claim that does not meet the requirements of subsection (5) of this section and you will receive ([verbal]) instructions to contact ([your]) the unemployment claims telecenter. A written claim that does not meet these requirements is incomplete and the department will ([be returned]) return it to you with a request for additional information.

(7) What happens if I file my claim late?

(a) Until you receive your first payment, your claim is late if it is filed more than seven days (one week) after the Saturday of the week being claimed. You will not be paid for these weeks unless you can prove you had a good reason for filing late.

(b) After you have received your first payment, your claim is late if it is filed more than 20 days (four weeks) after the Saturday of the week being claimed. Any week that is filed late may be conditionally paid. This means you will be paid benefits, but you will be asked to prove you had a good reason for filing late. If you cannot do so, you will receive a notice directing you to repay benefits for the week(s) you filed late.)

(1) The first time you call the unemployment information and weekly claims line to obtain information about your claim or to file a weekly claim for benefits, you must ([establish]) set up a personal identification number (PIN). This number is your electronic signature on all claims filed by telephone and its use is equivalent to your signature on written forms.
(2) Security of the PIN is your responsibility. You are responsible for any payments made as a result of the use of this PIN unless you provide evidence showing that the individual using your PIN was not authorized to do so. Your PIN must be reset if you forget ((your PIN)) it or if someone else, including an employee of the department, learns your PIN((it must be reset)). You are responsible for either contacting the unemployment claims telecenter to ((establish)) set up a new PIN or setting up a new PIN using the department's internet site.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 07-22-055, filed 11/1/07, effective 12/2/07)

WAC 192-140-100 What happens if I do not respond to a request for information about a discharge from work? (1) If you do not respond to a request for information about a discharge from work and if you:

(a) Have not given the department enough information to identify or contact the employer, the department will presume the employer discharged you for misconduct connected with ((the)) your work. The department will deny benefits ((will be denied)) under RCW 50.20.066.

((If you)) (b) Have given the department enough information to contact the employer, the department will not deny benefits ((will not be denied)) unless ((the employer shows by)) a preponderance of evidence shows that you were discharged for misconduct connected with your work or the separation was for another disqualifying reason.

(2) ((This)) If benefits are denied due to misconduct, the denial is for an indefinite period of time and will continue ((until you meet the requalification provisions of RCW 50.20.066)) for ten weeks and until you earn ten times your weekly benefit amount in employment that is covered by Title 50 RCW.
AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 07-22-055, filed 11/1/07, effective 12/2/07)

WAC 192-150-150 When is a separation considered a refusal of new work? (1) Section 3304 (a)(5) of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act and RCW 50.20.110 state that you cannot be denied benefits if you refuse to accept new work when the wages, hours, or other working conditions are substantially less favorable than those prevailing for similar work in your local labor market.

(2) For purposes of this chapter, "new work" includes an offer by your present employer of:
   (a) Different duties than those you agreed to perform in your current employment contract or agreement; or
   (b) Different terms or conditions of employment from those in the existing contract or agreement.

(3) When ((your employer changes your pay, hours, or conditions of work in a manner that does not constitute good cause under RCW 50.20.050(2)), the department will decide if the change is an offer of new work. If it is, the department will also decide if the new work is substantially less favorable than similar work in your local labor market)) you resign rather than accept conditions of employment that are different from those under which you had been working, the department will decide whether you left work voluntarily or refused an offer of new work.

(a) If the changes in working conditions are not substantial, the department will consider you to have voluntarily quit work.

(b) If ((the department decides the)) there is a substantial change in working conditions so as to constitute((s)) an offer of new work and the change is not authorized or implied by the original employment agreement, ((and the new work is substantially less favorable,)) the department will treat the separation as a layoff due to lack of work and adjudicate ((the issue of)) the refusal of new work under RCW 50.20.080.

(i) ((The department will adjudicate the refusal of new work even if you have not claimed benefits for the week in which you refused the new work, and

(ii) The employer offering the new work is an interested party to the work refusal decision.

(b) If the department decides the change is not an offer of new work, or the new work is not substantially less favorable, it will adjudicate the separation from work as a voluntary quit under RCW 50.20.050(2) or a discharge under RCW 50.04.294, as appropriate.

(iii) If the ((employer reduces)) change in working conditions is a reduction in your pay or hours ((by)) of ten percent or less, the department will presume ((that it is not substantially less favorable and adjudicate the separation under RCW 50.20.050(2) or a discharge under RCW 50.04.294, as appropriate) the change is not substantial. You can overcome this presumption by providing additional information to the department ((that shows)) showing the job was not suitable ((as provided in)) under RCW 50.20.110.

((5)) (iii) If you continue working ((for your employer)) after ((being notified of the change(s) in)) your working conditions have changed, ((the department will consider that you have agreed to the new terms and conditions of employment and have accepted the offer of new work. If you)) but later quit work because of these changes, the department will ((consider that)) presume you ((have)) voluntarily left work for personal reasons. This ((provision)) does not apply when:

(A) You give notice of your intent to quit ((work upon being notified of the change(s) in working conditions and simply)) but continue to work during an agreed upon notice period((—In addition—)); or

(B) You ((may)) continue working during an employer-provided grievance or arbitration period in response to the change in working conditions ((without the department considering that you have accepted the new work)).

((6)) (iii) This subsection does not apply when the change in working conditions was caused by your own misconduct. The department will treat your refusal of the new working conditions as a separation from work under RCW 50.20.050 or 50.20.066.

(c) If the department decides you were separated due to a layoff but you refused an offer of new work, the department will issue a written decision even if you do not claim benefits for the week in which the refusal occurred. The employer offering the new work is an interested party to the work refusal decision.

(4) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Conditions of work" includes fringe benefits such as life and health insurance; paid sick, vacation, and annual leave; provisions for leaves of absence and holiday leave; pensions, annuities and retirement provisions; and severance pay. It also includes job security and reemployment rights; training and promotion policies; wage guarantees; unionization; grievance procedures; work rules, including health and safety rules; medical and welfare programs; physical conditions such as heat, light and ventilation; shifts of employment; and permanency of work.

(b) "Prevailing" means the most typical or customary in a particular occupation for a given area. The department will decide if a wage rate is prevailing for your labor market area based on information provided by its labor market and economic analysis branch.

(c) "Similar work" means similarity of the operations performed, the skill, ability and knowledge required, and the responsibilities involved.

(d) "Substantial change in working conditions" means a material change that is significant in terms of amount, degree, or impact as opposed to a change that is relatively minor or trivial. A change in working conditions is not substantial if the conditions prevailing after the change are those generally prevailing for other workers performing the same or similar work.

(e) "Substantially less favorable" means the work is materially reduced below the standard under which the majority of individuals in your occupation and labor market area customarily work (or the work would have a significantly unfavorable impact on you).
AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 07-22-055, filed 11/1/07, effective 12/2/07)

WAC 192-180-010 Job search requirements--Directives--RCW 50.20.010 (1)(c) and 50.20.240. (1) Do I have to look for work? You must be actively seeking work unless you are:
   (a) Attached to an employer as defined in WAC 192-180-005(1); or
   (b) Participating in a training program approved by the commissioner.

   (2) When should I start my job search? You must look for work every week that you file a claim for benefits, unless you are exempt under subsection (1) of this section.

   (3) What are my weekly job search requirements?
      (a) At a minimum, you must:
         (i) Make job search contacts with at least three employers each week; or
         (ii) Participate in three approved in-person job search activities at the WorkSource office or local employment center, or any combination of employer contacts or in-person job search activities for a total of three.
      (b) Based on your individual circumstances, such as your occupation, experience, or labor market area, the department may issue you a directive requiring more than three employer contacts or job search activities each week.
      (c) If you are a member of a referral union you must be registered with your union, eligible for and actively seeking dispatch, and comply with your union's dispatch or referral requirements (see WAC 192-210-120). Your benefits may be denied for any weeks in which you fail to meet these requirements and you may be directed to seek work outside of your union.

   (4) What is a "job search contact"? A job search contact is a contact with an employer to inquire about or apply for a job. You may use job search methods that are customary for your occupation and labor market area, including in-person, telephone, internet, or telefax contacts. The work applied for must be suitable (see RCW 50.20.100) unless you choose to look for work in a lower skill area. A contact does not count if it is made with an employer whom you know is not hiring, or if the department decides the contact is designed in whole or in part to avoid meeting the job search requirements. Simply posting your resume on-line (for example, Monster.com or Craigslist) does not constitute a job search contact for purposes of this section; an application or contact with an employer for a specific job must be submitted to count as one of the required weekly job search contacts.

   (5) What is an "in-person job search activity"? This is an activity provided through the WorkSource office or local employment center that will assist you in your reemployment efforts. It includes, but is not limited to, job search workshops, training classes, or other facilitated services provided by WorkSource staff and approved by the local WorkSource administrator. For claimants residing in Washington state, an in-person job search activity must be documented in the department’s services, knowledge and information exchange system (SKIES) to qualify. For interstate claimants, the activity must be documented in the one-stop system in the state in which you reside.

(6) What is a directive? A directive is a written notice from the department telling you that specific methods of job search are required in order to meet the job search requirements. A written directive need not have been issued to deny benefits for failure to meet the job search requirements in subsection (3) of this section.

(7) When is a directive issued? The department can issue a directive to clarify or to increase the job search requirements you must meet. Examples include, but are not limited to, cases in which you need to:
   (a) Increase the number of employer contacts each week;
   (b) Change your method of looking for work (such as from resumes to in-person contacts);
   (c) Expand the geographic area in which you look for work; or
   (d) Look for work in a secondary occupation.

(8) When is the directive effective? The directive is effective when it is given in writing by the department. It stays in effect until a new written directive is given, or it is rescinded in writing.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 05-19-018, filed 9/9/05, effective 10/10/05)

WAC 192-180-013 What are the job search requirements for individuals who work less than full time? (1) "Partially unemployed" workers are those individuals:
   (a) Who were hired to work full time((τ))
   (b) Whose weekly hours of work have been temporarily reduced ((to less than full time)) by their employer((τ)) by no more than sixty percent;
   (c) Who earn less than one and one-third times their weekly benefit amount plus five dollars during a week((τ)) and
   (d) Who are expected to return to full time work for their employer within four months.

The department considers these workers ((are considered)) to be employer attached and they are not required to register for or seek work. They must be available for all work offered by their regular employer.

(2) "Part time" workers are individuals who normally work less than full time, or who take a job that is less than full time. To be eligible for benefits, these individuals must be available for and actively seeking full time work and the department may review their job search at any time. If they get a part time job, they must continue to look for full time work or we will deny their benefits under RCW 50.20.010 (1)(c). This definition of "part time" workers means individuals who work part time but do not meet the requirements of RCW 50.20.119.

(3) "Part time eligible" workers are individuals who have worked no more than ((17)) seventeen hours in any week of their base year. They are eligible for benefits under RCW 50.20.119.
These individuals may look for work of ((17)) seventeen or fewer hours per week and the department may review their job search at any time. Once an individual gets a job for ((17)) seventeen or fewer hours per week, he or she is employer attached and no longer required to look for work.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 07-22-055, filed 11/1/07, effective 12/2/07)

WAC 192-180-015 Tracking job search activities--RCW
50.20.240. (1) Do I need to keep track of my job search activities? You must keep a record or log of your job search contacts and the in-person job search activities you receive through the WorkSource office or local employment center unless you are:

(a) A member of a full referral union;
(b) Allowed benefits because you left work to protect yourself or a member of your immediate family from domestic violence or stalking as provided in RCW 50.20.050 (2)(b)(iv); or
(c) Exempt from job search requirements under WAC 192-180-010(1).

(2) What information do I need to keep in the log? Your job search log must contain at least the following information:
(a) For in-person or telephone job search contacts, record the date contact was made; the employer's name, address and telephone number; ((the type of)) how contact was made (in-person, telephone, etc.); the name or position of the person you contacted; and the type of work you applied for. If application was made on-line, by newspaper or other means in which there is no direct employer contact, include date, web address, or newspaper name or address, the job applied for, such as a job reference number, or attach a copy of the job announcement or a confirmation notice received after your application was submitted;
(b) For in-person job search activities at the WorkSource office or local reemployment center, record the date contact was made; and a description of the services you received or the activities in which you participated.

(3) Is there a specific form I must use? The department will supply you with a form (EMS 10313) to use in tracking your job search activities. You may use your own form or tracking method as long as you record all information required by this section.
