Unemployment Tax Rules Meeting, 4/22/10

PROCEEDINGS

Welcome and Introductions

MS. AMES: Pursuant to the authority given under the Washington State law, this hearing is hereby convened. For the record, this hearing is beginning at 1:39 p.m. on April 22, 2010, at 212 Maple Mark Drive, Olympia Washington.

This hearing is convened to consider testimony concerning the rule-making proposal to adopt and amend rules encompassing a general update of rules related to eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits.

Notice of this hearing was published in the Washington State Register on March 17, 2010, as WSR 10-06-084 and sent to interested parties.

My name is Pamela Ames, and I'm the rules coordinator for the Washington State Employment Security Department. And I represent commissioner Karen Lee as hearing officer presiding at this public rule-making hearing.

I noticed that you've all signed in on the attendance log. And that will be kept as a permanent record of this hearing.

There is Employment Security Department staff attending this hearing, so if you could introduce...
Unemployment Tax Rules Meeting, 4/22/10

1 yourself.
2 MS. MYERS: Juanita Myers. I am the rules
3 coordinator for the Unemployment Insurance Division.
4 MS. AMES: So please be advised that this hearing is 5 being recorded and the transcript will become a part of 6 the official rule-making file.
7 When the rule is adopted, a concise explanatory
8 statement of the Agency's reasons for adopting the rule,
9 including a summary and response to all comments received,
10 will be placed in the permanent rule-making file, and 11 copies will be available upon request. You should let 12 Juanita know if you desire to review any written 13 submissions received to date or receive a copy of the 14 Agency's concise explanatory statement.
15
16 Discussion on Rules
17
18 MS. AMES: It's time to begin. We will begin with 19 Juanita with a brief explanation of the proposal.
20 Juanita.
21 MS. MYERS: The Department is adopting rules that 22 reflect a general update of rules related to eligibility
23 for unemployment insurance benefits. The majority of the 24 rules in this filing are clarifications of existing rules
25 or rules that convert existing policy to rules.
As recommended in the Administrative Procedures Act, the conversion of policy to rules is intended to provide transparency to the public concerning the decision-making process undertaken by the Department when determining an individual's eligibility for benefits. Rule-making topics include the definition of terms, processing benefit claims, notices to employers, reporting requirements, job-research requirements, availability for work, job separations, deductions from benefits, training in employment for educational institutions. Amendments to the existing rules and new rules that reflect significant policy changes are outlined on the CR-102 proposed rule-making order that was distributed.

Normally I go through each of the rule changes, but not today just because of their length. So if you have concerns about the additional -- about particular rules, please feel free to address those when we get to that portion of the hearing.

The Department has determined that changes to other rules or statutes would not achieve the same regulatory objective. The language of the proposed rules has been shared with the US Department of Labor. There are no other state agencies that deal with the subject matter of these regulations. The Department has chosen a reasonable, cost-effective manner of achieving the regulatory objective of the rules. There are no anticipated environmental consequences associated with the rules. Specifying performance standards is not appropriate for the rules. The proposed regulations do not impose more than minor costs on business. Cost benefit analysis is available for those who request a copy. Input was solicited from stakeholders during the development of the proposed regulations, and all input has been considered.

MS. AMES: Thank you, Juanita.

Now is the portion of the hearing where we hear testimony from those logged in attendance concerning the proposal. And I notice neither one of you said you wanted to give testimony, but I'm sure you would like to -- you may want to provide some sort of comment. So if you wish to comment, please state your name and who you represent so that we can get that entered into the record. Do either of you want to present any or ask any questions?

MR. LEHMAN: My name is Ross Lehman with Human Resources Services Northwest. I've got some notes here from people who know more about it than I do in my office. And more just clarification.

MS. MYERS: If you would prefer, you can submit those to us in writing. You can give me the written copy if that would be easier for you rather than going through each one of them verbally at the hearing. You can submit those as your written comments.

MR. LEHMAN: That's fine. I've got your address.

MS. AMES: Unless you need some clarification before you submit them.

MR. LEHMAN: No. We don't have any issues with any of these things really except for clarification.

MS. MYERS: And we can make a copy for you before you leave.

MR. LEHMAN: I've got --

MS. MYERS: You've got copies?

MR. LEHMAN: Yeah.

MS. MYERS: This is a copy available for me? Okay.

Wonderful.

MS. AMES: Any other comments or testimony?

MR. LEHMAN: That would really say everything we want to say.

MS. MYERS: Okay. Thank you.

MS. AMES: Did you want to review that at all and ask clarifying --

MS. MYERS: Not at this point. If I have questions,
I can call.
MS. AMES: All right. That would be great. That certainly makes it short.

Is there any other further testimony concerning the proposed rule making before I conclude the hearing?

Conclusion

MS. AMES: To reiterate, this hearing was convened to consider testimony concerning the rule-making proposal to adopt and amend rules encompassing a general update of rules related to eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits. All oral testimony presented at this hearing and written submissions will become part of the official record. The deadline for submitting written comment was April 21, 2010, but yours was submitted here.

A final decision regarding adoption of this proposed rule making will be made after all testimony and written comments have been considered with a target date of April 29, 2010.

On behalf of commissioner Karen Lee, thank you for participating in this hearing. And the hearing is adjourned at 1:45.

(whereupon, proceedings adjourned at 1:45 p.m.)
